30 Years at 19th & Holloway

1906 The first campus of what is now San Francisco State University after the great quake. San Francisco Normal School was situated on Powell St. between Sacramento and Clay, 1899-1906.

A Short History. . .

1917 S.F. Normal School built a new building after the quake on Buchanan St. near Haight.

1935 Entrance to Anderson Hall, on Buchanan St. campus.

1938 The Buchanan St. campus, College Hall in center.

1938 Students protest deteriorating condition of College Hall.

1940 Relaxing on the quad of the Buchanan St. campus.

1939 National Recovery Act workers and college President Roberts start on Lake Merced site.

1942 Work on the Lake Merced campus is halted by the war — and the move won't be made until 1954.

1960 Lake Merced campus.

1971 The architect's rendering for the new Student Union, destined to become San Francisco State's trademark.

1974 The controversial building causes discussion while under construction.

1973 Building the Student Union.

1980 The San Francisco State campus of the '80s.

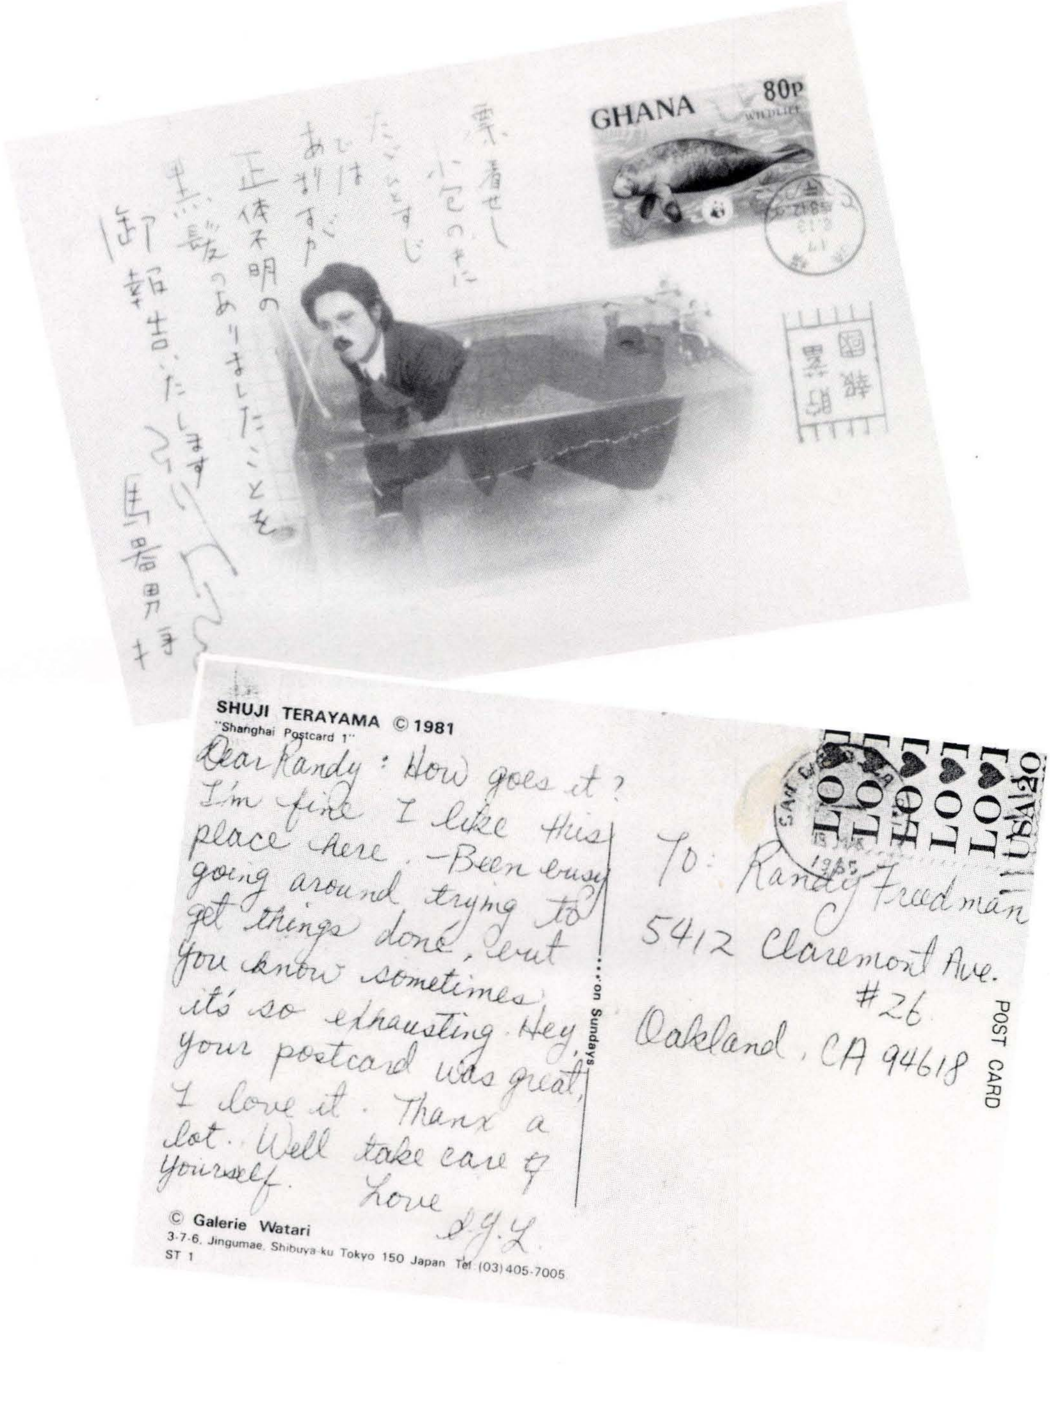
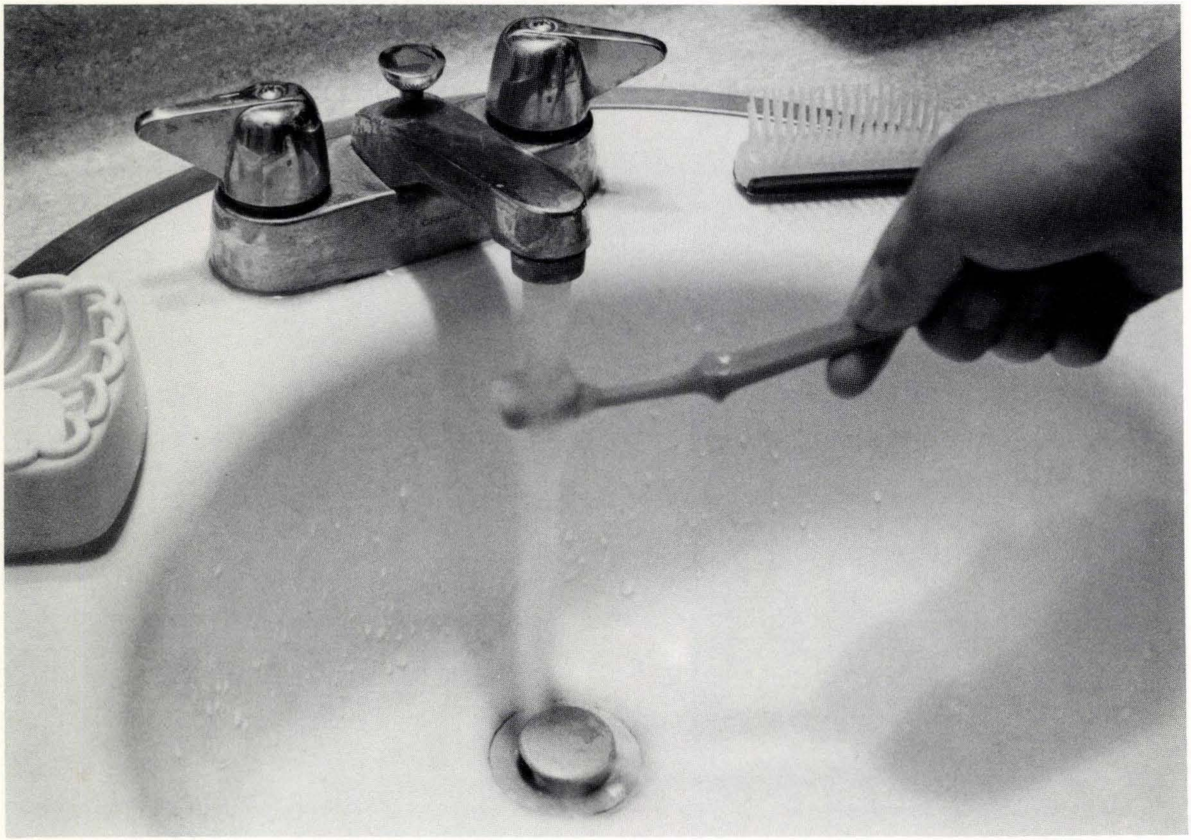
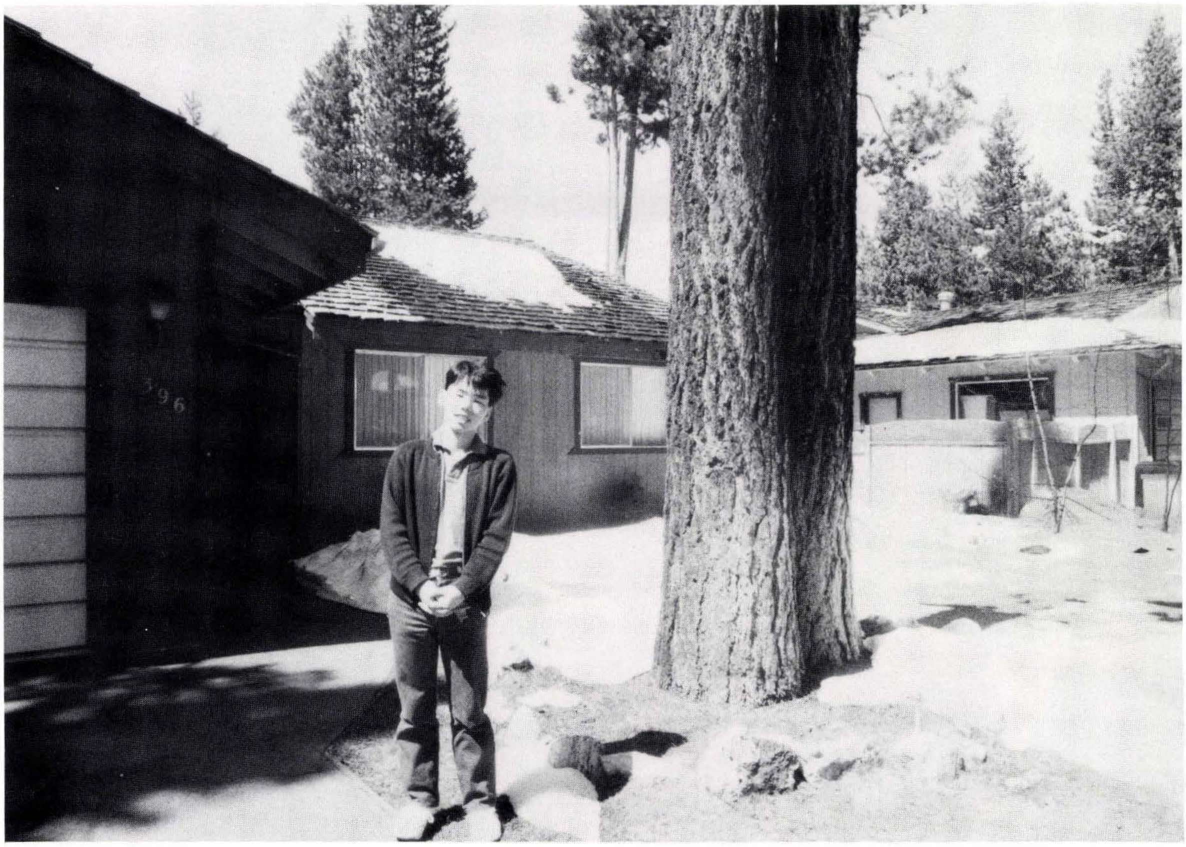
Student Life



photoessay by Joon Kang



Dear Randy: How goes it?



I'm fine. I like this place here.

— Been busy going around . . .

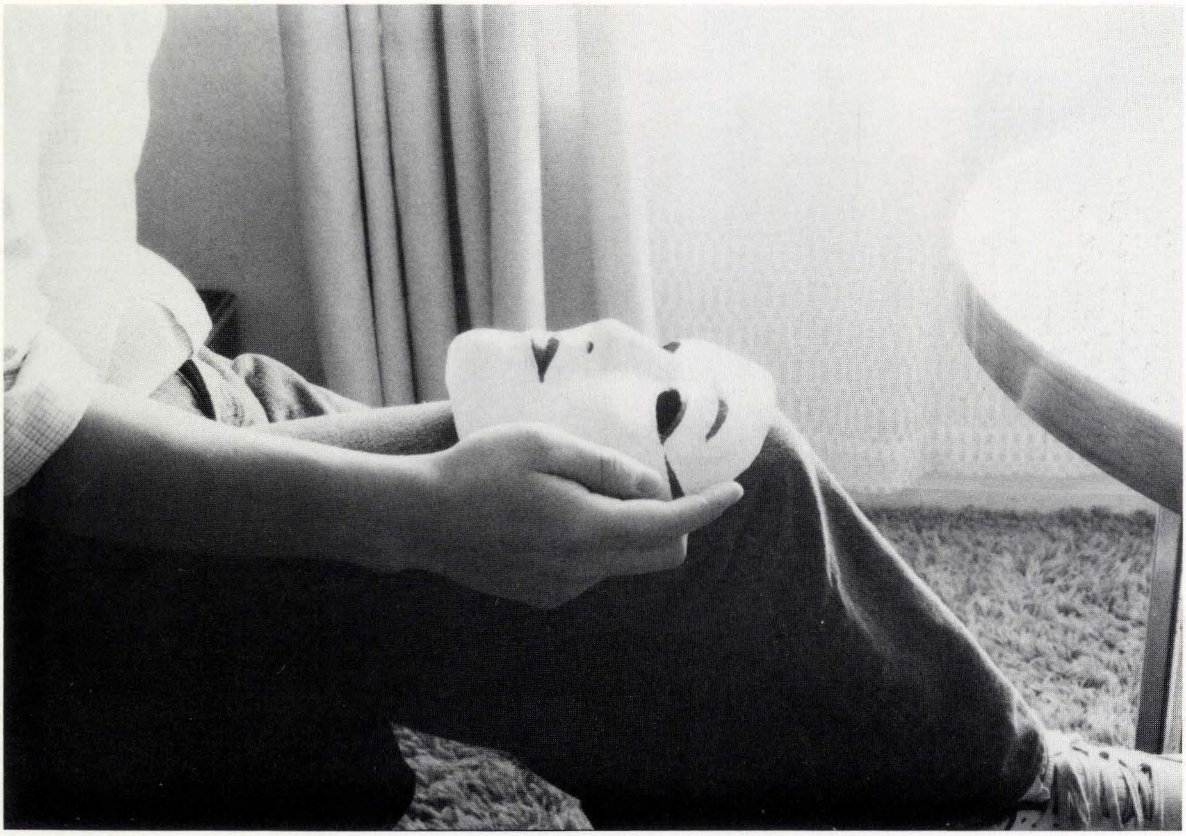
. . . trying to get things done,

but you know sometimes it's so exhausting.

Hey, your postcard was great.

I love it. Thanx a lot.

Well take care of yourself.



Love S.Y.L.

end.
